

10 Rules for Guests Attending Treasure Chest Sessions:

- 1) Respect the privacy of others: Guests should not share any personal information about other group members without their consent.
- 2) Listen actively: Guests should actively listen to the contributions of others and refrain from interrupting or dominating the conversation.
- 3) Be mindful of time: Guests should be mindful of the time and not prolong the session unnecessarily
- 4) Follow the facilitator's instructions: Guests should follow the instructions of the coach, who is responsible for managing the group session.
- 5) Maintain confidentiality: Guests should respect the confidentiality of the group and not share information discussed in the session outside of the group.
- 6) Be open-minded: Guests should be open-minded and willing to consider different perspectives.
- 7) Be supportive: Guests should be supportive and respectful of other group members.
- 8) Be on time: Guests should arrive on time and be ready to either observe or participate in the session.
- 9) Be respectful of the host: Guests should be respectful of the coach and their wishes for the session.
- 10) Be honest and transparent: Guests should be honest and transparent about their intentions when visiting the group session.
- 11) Session readiness: Guests should have their cameras on and focused for the full duration of the session without distractions or loud audio.